What is the Oregon Law Center?

- OLC is an independent nonprofit law firm providing free legal aid to low-income people.
- Our mission is to achieve justice for the low income communities of Oregon by providing a full range of the highest quality civil legal services.
- We do not take criminal or family law cases.
- Due to limited resources, OLC cannot accept every case.
- We accept cases based upon available staff, a legal evaluation, and priorities. OLC's Board of Directors sets the priorities based on input from clients, agencies serving clients, local attorneys, judges and staff.

What kind of cases does the Portland Regional Office of OLC accept?

- Employment
 - Unpaid wages
 - Unsafe work conditions
 - Sexual harassment
 - Discrimination (being treated differently because of race, national origin, gender, etc.)
- Housing
 - Major repair problems
 - Retaliation
 - Sexual harassment
 - Discrimination (being treated differently because of race, disability, national origin, gender, religion, or having children, etc.)
- Consumer & mortgage fraud
- Public benefits
 - OLC accepts cases involving TANF, SNAP, unemployment, medical insurance, and other problems with government assistance programs. Please call the Public Benefits Hotline, 1-800-520-5292, for screening first.
